Dear Robert Monroe,

I am a professional belly dancer and instructor, age 32, plus a mother of two school-age children. Since I've gotten into Mideastern dance, other Mideastern cultures and religions have fascinated me. I first started reading books about Edgar Cayce and by Ruth Montgomery. That got me more interested in spiritualism - however those books just didn't satisfy my curiosity. Just recently, someone suggested that I read the books by Lobsang Rampa who was a lama in Tibet. He's got at least 15 different books out that describe his powers (healing, levitation, astral travelling, etc.) and tell how (over) anyone can do these things). Another thing he has done is transmigration (leaving his body permanently to "live" in another body). His body was diseased and worn out, and the monks in the high spirit plane (Locale 8?) told him he would have to move to another body, since his mission was not yet accomplished. He could also speak to animals through ESP and notes that many animals are more highly developed spiritually than are humans. He can look at the Akashic Records (in the spirit world) at will and tell of past and future events. We are now ruled by the Anti-God (of anti-matter), and things will get much worse around the year 2000 (big wars, earth shifting on its axis, etc.) before they get better. Intelligent beings from outer space will eventually come to earth and live here - but that will be way in the future. Eventually, peace will come to everyone & everything, and we will be ruled by God.

Lobsang Rampa wrote many books - and his books and your book coincide exactly. His books also answer many questions about the ten different spirit planes (or Locales) and about vibrations and future events.

As a child, I would dream about flying around in the air almost every night. During my waking hours, I would daydream of flying and wonder how I could achieve this, being awake. I desired to fly so much!

Now, at times, I have these flying dreams once in a while. I have read very much about astral travelling and understand it somewhat. I have not yet been able to astral travel consciously, but I will keep trying to do so, in spite of the scary entities or thought forms in the Lower astral world as you and Lobsang Rampa describe in your books.

You are probably highly developed spiritually, since you have been able to go to a high astral plane (women & men wearing long robes), and have been recognized there.

If you haven't read any books by Lobsang Rampa, please do so. They are either published by Corji (English) or Ballantine.

Is there any group I can join or any other literature I can read of astral travelling? I would also love to correspond with other people who have the same interests.

P.S. My business name & address is on the enclosed card.

Sincerely,
